CENERAL NEWS

On Monday night a fatul accident occurred on the Michigan Central Railroad, at a point near South Bend, Indiana. Thirtythree persons were killed out-right and the following war news: fifty to sixty were injured.

It is now ascertained beyond doubt that Edward Griffiths, who a year ago was sentenced to prison by a New York city court on a charge of shooting and wound ing a policeman, is entirely innocent. The two burgiars, Kelley and Gordon, arrested last week, confess to having committed that crime, and say that Griffiths is a stranger to them.

A girl of 13 years of age was four it wandering in the streets of N. York on Monday night. She says her name is Anne Louiss Burke, and that her aunt, with whom she had been living in Bridgepon, brought her to the city and deserted her in the streets

A prize fight for $200 a side took place at Louisville, on Monday, between Johnny McCooley and Dublin Tricks. The latter was whipped in thirty rounds. The fight dasted an hour and ten minutes.

John C. Wolcott, Esq., the orator cleat of the Pittsfield (Mass.) Fourth of July celebration, had both of the bones of his fore arm broken, last week, by a stone thrown by one Thos. B. Brown, whom he was taking to task for crossing his fields and leaving the bars down.

It is stated that General Nye, Ex-Com missioner of the New York Police, is lying dengerously ill at his residence in that city

A letter from Hudson, Ohio, states that ut severe hell-storm last Friday visited that place. It stripped the trota nearly bare, and destroyed most of the wheat and rye is the neighborhood. In the buildings of the college located there more dian two thousand pures of glass were broken and the hall, whitehed the ground for a great distance around.

A heaty highway tobbety was lately perpetrated in Canada: A man named Griffen was rubbed of two hundred and fifty-two pounds by three men, who also took from him his blothing, leaving him only his boots. The inhabitants of a village near by; seeing him in this strange costume, imagined that he was a lunatic escaped from some asylum, and turned out in full force to capture him. This they did easily, the unfortunate victim being but too glad to avail himself of the shelter and clothes that his captivity afforded hims After he had been a few initiates in custody matters were explained, and Griffin started

An old man was recently picked tip in a street of New York, where he had fallen in a fit. Soon after, he died in the station house. He stated that he was seventy-four years old, and gave the names and the state of the station house. The state of the same in the s residences of several relatives in that city, among others a daughter and son-in-law. These relatives were notified, but refused to do anything towards burying him, and the body was about to be interred in Potter's Field, when Mr. Merriam of Brooklyn, arrived at the station-house, and stated that he knew the deceased, who had once been properly desired a civic guard. Doubtless the revolution of Bologna will spread before long through the provinces. Whilst I am writing, Pernzia, the capital of Umbrin, must have risen, for as soon as the news of the victory at Magenta arrived the people ran to the church, struck up the Ambros'an hymn, and in the evening illuminated the he knew the deceased, who had once been in good circumstances, a man of some prominence, and an intimate friend of Lafayette, with whom he corresponded several years. Mr. Merriam had the body of the foreaken old man interred in his own lot in Greenwood Cemetery.

Private advices from China announce the death at Shanghai, on the 9th April, of the Rev. William Allen Macy, one of the missionaries of the American Board. Mr. Macy was a nephew of the late Benjamin F. Butler, and left this country for his missionary field in November, 1854, having, by a former visit to China acquired considerable knowledge of the language and character of the people among whom he was to labor. During the past five years he has been un active and enthusiastic pioneer in the work of the educational and religious advancement of the Chinese, and having Imastered the difficulties of the language and become thoroughly conversant with the peculiarities of the Chinese mind was about to penetrate into the interior and open a new sphere of missionary of era tions, when he was attacked by the disease (a malignant form of small-pox) which out short his career.

ort his career, On Saturday afternoon a child in Hart ford fell from a third-story window, but, instead of immediately striking the ground, it fell into the lap of a woman sitting upon the sidewalk. Though seriously injured it of these preparations the resistance on this may recover.

There has lately been a terrific tornado in Virginia. Chimneys were blown from buildings, trees were uprooted, a ferry boat upset, a corn sheller was carried by the wird half a mile, a trunk and its contents was transported five miles, a lot of building timber, stored upon the spot where it was to be used, completely disappeared. Worse then all a school house was blown over and the tescher with some of the children were injured. All this was in Gloucester county, near Gloucester Point.

Mr. Jonathan Kemp committed suicide in Marbiehead Wednesday morning, by cutting his throat. The verdict of the coroner was that the deed was done in a temporary fit of insanity caused by the excessive use of ardent spirit. Mr. Kemp's nge was about 39 years.

SAVE YOUR CARPETS FROM WEAR AND MOTH

IMPORTANT TO LADY HOUSE-KEEPERS:

KEEPERS:

Mr. J. R. HARRINGTON would respectfully inform the lady reader that he hus, after long and tedious experiments, succeeded in producing an article which has, from time immenorial, been much needed by every housewaper in the land, it is that of a peculiarly constructed

CARPKI LINIOC.

This article is a new invention, and has been parented. It not only entirely protects of aprets from moths and other incerts, but it makes the Carpets from norths and other incerts, but it makes the Carpets from norths and other incerts, but it makes the Carpets from norths and other incerts, but it makes the Carpets from norths and other incerts, but it makes the Carpets from norths and other incerts, but it makes the Carpets from norths and other incerts, but it makes the Carpets from norths and other incerts, but it makes the Carpets from norths and other incerts, but it makes the Carpets from norths and other incerts, but it makes the Carpets from norths and carpets.

This article is a new invention, and has been parented. It not only entirely protects Carpets from moths and other insects, but it makes the Carpets ofto the tread, acts as a number of sound, is a non-conductor of heat, thoroughly-and effectually prevents dampness striking through, and what is of the greatest desideratum of all, it makes your Carpet last twice as long as if straw or paper were used. This linking is very low in price, and will at least save FIFTY PER CENT. on the cost of the Carpet. The
